Subject: 2011 Private Automobile Mileage Reimbursement Rate

Date: July 1, 2011

The APPM Section 7.1, Travel and Transportation, indicates that the standard mileage rate for reimbursement for private automobile usage will be the same as the rate allowable by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

Periodically the IRS adjusts the standard mileage rates to reflect the changing cost of operating automobiles. As a result, effective July 1, 2011 the allowable IRS rate for mileage is 55.5 cents per mile (increased from 51.0 cents until June 30, 2011). Accordingly, effective immediately, the allowable reimbursement rate for University authorized mileage will be 55.5 cents.
